Reports on Students Attributes

“Vidya Param Daivatam”

“Knowledge is the supreme deity”

Independence and complete growth as a person are gifts that education may bestow. Dr. C. V. Raman University in Bilaspur, (C.G.) promotes the following values among its students.

Desire to Learn: Students are continuously encouraged to further their education and expand their knowledge base. Important tenets of education at Dr. C. V. Raman University include classroom discussions, individual research, experiential learning, participatory learning etc.

Dedication and Devotion: Students at Dr. C. V. Raman University are strongly encouraged to participate in all activities with the maximum level of sincerity and devotion. In addition, students are urged to make a positive contribution to the expansion of society. The concept of student social responsibility primarily emphasises assuming personal responsibility for one’s own deeds and behaviours. It is a commitment all individuals ought to make for the society when they work for the causes of equality for all, cultural preservation, and environmental protection.

Honesty: The idea behind the proverb "honesty is the best policy" is that one should always speak the truth, even if they believe lying to be the less difficult choice in a certain situation. The wisdom included in the proverb sheds light on the significance that honesty and integrity have in the life of an individual. A dishonest individual can never have the same level of bravery and self-assurance that an honest person has.

Students are encouraged to develop qualities such as compassion, discipline, truthfulness, moral integrity, and many more. This enables students to better understand themselves and recognise their respective strengths and limitations.

Team Work: Teamwork streamlines processes and makes it simpler and easier to get things done in a timelier manner. It teaches how to form relationships and collaborate with other people. The modest nature of an individual may be developed via effective participation in a team. The ability to grow both personally and professionally requires effective collaboration.

Students are better able to develop crucial social skills, their self-confidence is boosted, and they are better positioned for future success because to this attribute. Students gain the ability to listen to one another in order to work as a cohesive unit, as well as the ability to successfully share their ideas and opinions in a group context while maintaining a courteous demeanour and a sense of self-assurance.

Eager to Learn: Students at Dr. C. V. Raman University are instructed to develop an appreciation for a variety of cultures and to learn how to collaborate well with persons who come from a variety of backgrounds.

Industry Ready: The curriculum structure, teaching style, and a unique industry engagement with a focus on attitude, behavioural skills, and global orientation have been the primary components of our approach to education. These aspects have been emphasised throughout the programme. In the modern corporate perspective, ongoing education is not an option but rather a prerequisite for success. Dr. C. V. Raman University is devoted to updating and revising the course curriculum in continuous approach with the dynamic demands of the business world, therefore filling the gap between the "sought" and the "delivered" Dr. C. V. Raman University is committed to updating and revising the course curriculum in sync with the dynamic needs of the business world.

Local For Vocal: To "make local," "use local," and "promote local products" are the three fundamental tenets of the Vocal for Local movement. Because of this project, a significant number of individuals in that region will have work opportunities, which will contribute to the expansion of the local market. After a period of time, these regional markets will develop to the point where they will become successful enough to sell their renowned products to numerous nations all over the world. If we utilise local products, this will not only help to build the identity of the local community, but it will also help to promote the economy of both the region and the country.

Dr. C. V. Raman University is committed for local for vocal product development and use. The students are also advised to use the local products to enrich the livelihood of the society.

Atma Nirbhar Bharat: Dr. C. V. Raman University is committed to Make in India and Digital India Policy and Scheme of Govt. of India. Dr. C. V. Raman University remains steadfast in its mission to instil in its students a work ethic characterised by theoretical and applied research leading to the creation and dissemination of new knowledge within the context of Indian ethos and values, so that they may become insightful, honourable, and responsible citizens of this great nation.

Participation in Activities: Different committees, such as the Students' Council, the N.S.S. committee, the Women's Cell, the Career Counselling & Development Cell, IECSC and other student clubs, are responsible for the organisation of a variety of extra-curricular activities, including cultural activities, N.S.S. activities, sports activities, seminars, workshops, and social activities. These activities are all held outside of the classroom. The purpose of these activities is to get kids prepared for a variety of different events, as well as to get them ready to compete in a variety of different contests on the district, state, national, and international level.

Students become better individuals with a more robust value system as a result of their participation in extracurricular social activities because these activities teach them to assist others by donating their time and energy.

The university's Raman Student Council is responsible for organising a variety of activities, including singing, dancing, acting, musical performances, and more. They not only get the opportunity to display their ability at these events, but they also have the possibility to improve their management abilities by participation in these activities.

The aforementioned students Attributes are congruent with the University's mission to instil in its students a work ethic based on the theoretical creation and dissemination of knowledge; and to provide them with the most up-to-date knowledge and skills in their chosen fields against the backdrop of Indian ethos and values, preparing them to be insightful, honourable, and responsible citizens of India and the world.
